The English lived in Huelva for a long time. They used to play sports like football. Recreativo de Huelva was the first....
Ships with new things from the Americas arrived in Seville.
Which of these things is not from the Americas?
Tobacco, cocoa, coffee, rice, potatoes, silk and spices.
Cádiz is in Southern Europe and it is very close to another continent. Can you name the continent?
1000 Years ago, the people who lived in Córdoba were Muslims and some Spanish words that we use today come from Arabic. Some of them begin with “al-“. Can you think of three words in Spanish that come from Arabic?
Picasso was a famous painter who was born in Málaga. He lived in Málaga and France. Can you name the capital of France?
Federico García Lorca was a very famous poet. He was born in Granada. He wrote one of his most famous poems in New York. There is a very famous statue in New York, what is it called?
The Phoenicians introduced the olive tree to Spain but the Romans were the ones who planted fields of them in Jaén. What country is Rome in?
Americans came to Almería to make films because of...

- the skyscrapers
- the vegetation
- the desert