

Rev. 206

18/09/12

On the cover
After a patchy first term, Barack Obama now needs to make a convincing case for a second one: leader, page 8. His record is better than the woes of the economy suggest, pages 17-19. Caution among Republicans, page 31. Ron Paul's chaotic last hurrah, page 32. How conservative, elderly, rural North Dakota mirrors the mood of the country: Lexington, page 35
