British liberals Young Britons have turned liberal, both socially and economically. Politicians need to get on their side: leader, page 16. Britain's youth are not just more liberal than their elders. They are also keener on freedom than any previous generation. One politician seems to speak their language, page 32. The Tories have found their theme. Sadly, it is not changing how they govern: Bagehot, page 34

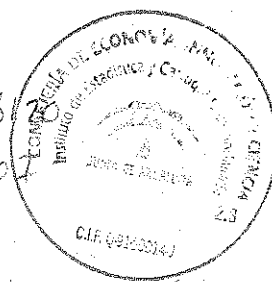

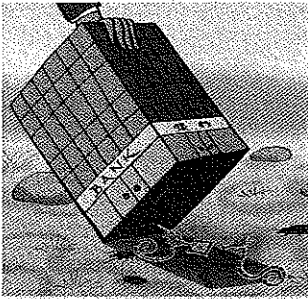

Vladimir Putin Why Angela Merkel understands him better than Barack Obama does: leader, page 12. The Kremlin's crackdown on opponents, protesters and activist groups may be a sign of fragility as much as of strength, page 25

George Washington The virtues of a founding father and his relevance today: Lexington, page 44
