

On the cover
The West should intervene in Syria for many reasons. One is to stem the rise of Persian power: leader, page 11. If Iran wants to get a nuclear weapon, it can: pages 21-23. David Cameron is almost alone among Britons in his determination to end Syria's war: Bagehot, page 32. Iran's new president, page 33. America's decision to send more arms to the Syrian rebels may not alter the war's dynamics, page 34
