Espionage America will not and should not stop spying. But a clearer focus and better oversight are needed to restore trust: leader, page 15. Foreign alarm about American snooping is mounting. But the sound and fury do not always match up, page 53

Argentina Cristina Fernández should build bridges to her opponents—or risk leaving office early: leader, page 14. A poll of Latin America shows a brighter picture for democracy, but not for other liberal freedoms, page 45

Iraq The country's leader wants more guns. But it is his political sense that is lacking, page 33. Are the Gulf monarchs doomed? Page 77
