Personae non gratae

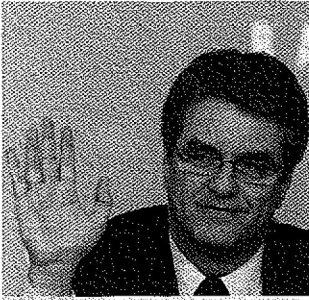

India Muslims have reason to fear Narendra Modi. He should reach out to them: leader, page 14. A populist with a nasty past and a decent economic record wants to run India, pages 24-26. Walmart, Carrefour and Tesco have been knocking on India's door, without much luck. The journey of an onion from field to pot shows why they are needed, page 61

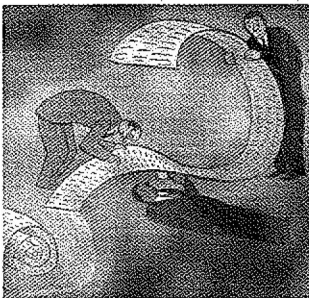

America's marriage gap Republicans should worry that unmarried women shun them: Lexington, page 44

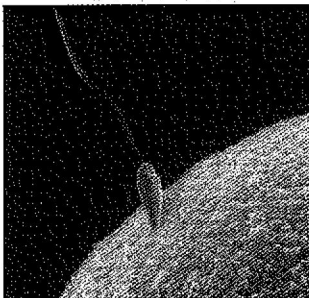

Ukraine Viktor Yanukovich has made his choice. His country has chosen otherwise: leader, page 15. The battle on the streets of Kiev, page 27

Trade deal Even a small global agreement is welcome. But a fresh approach is now needed: leader, page 15. Global trade talks yield a deal for the first time in almost 20 years, page 66. EU-Mercosur talks revive, page 47

The Volcker rule A new regulation that aims to pare risks in the financial system is likely to have the opposite effect: leader, page 18. A new push to make America's banks safer, page 65

Sperm Men who want healthy sperm should eat their greens, page 73
