On the cover

A deal between Greece and its creditors would be best. But if there has to be a Grexit, here is how to do it: leader, page 11. To stay in the euro zone, Greece's prime minister will have to jettison almost every promise he has made, page 19. The No vote felt good at the time, but did nothing to resolve the problems ahead, page 21. Could a parallel currency within the euro zone be possible? Page 21. The financial system is barely hanging on, page 22
