

On the cover
Right-wing populist politicians are on the march in America and Europe: leader, page 13. Two front-runners for the Republican nomination seem ready to harm America to win: Lexington, page 40. For Marine Le Pen's party, regional elections are just a stepping-stone, page 24. Anti-immigrant parties in Europe have long been shunned by mainstream politicians. That may no longer be possible, page 25
