Special report: Business in Africa
More than a billion opportunities
After page 38

Politicians and taxes A push to publish people's tax returns pits transparency against privacy. Which should win? Leader, page 9. Lessons from an unhappy few weeks for David Cameron, page 22. The evidence on full tax transparency is thin, and mixed, page 23

Southern Republicans go rogue Conservatives in southern statehouses are angry—at bottom, perhaps, about the waning of the values they are fighting for, page 29

Business in Africa The continent's future depends on people, not commodities: leader, page 8. The commodity boom may be over, and barriers to doing business are everywhere. But Africa's market of 1.2 billion people still holds huge promise, says Daniel Knowles. See our special report after page 38
