

7/2003

THE CARTOGRAPHIC JOURNAL

Volume 40, Number 2

ICA Special Issue, 2003

Contents

Cartographic Activities in the United Kingdom, 2000–2003. National Report to the International Cartographic Association's 12th General Assembly, Durban, South Africa, August 2003

Christopher Board Edited by Seppe Cassettari Mary Spence

Introduction	107
SECTION 1
Some Personal Reflections on Change ... The Past and Future of Cartography Michael Wood	111
Changes in Commercial Cartography in the UK and Prospects for the Future Mary Spence	117
A New Generation of Land Use Mapping Seppe Cassettari	121
Historical Mapping is Still Under-valued and Under-used Christopher Roper	131
Aerial Photography for Mapping in the UK Alun Jones	135
Cartographic Education and Research in the UK David Forrest	141
SECTION 2
Reports from UK Mapping Organizations	147
SECTION 3
Mapping Organization Profiles	157
SECTION 4
Views from the Societies	199
List of Organizations	209
Appendix: List of Recently Published Books	211