

PLAN NOVEL

What it consists of

The Programme for the promotion and dissemination of new audiovisual creation in Andalusia (Plan Novel) is a platform for the support and dissemination of new Andalusian creative talent. With the aim of guiding people that are taking their first steps in the audiovisual world and supporting alternative Andalusian audiovisual production. New digital tools have transformed those who were previously mere spectators in audiovisual content creation, a democratization of the opportunity to state personal views and ideas to the world.

The main objective

DISSEMINATE AND PROMOTE NEW ANDALUSIAN TALENT NATIONALLY AND INTERNATIONALLY.

Mission

Our mission is to empower new creative artists in Andalusia who are taking their first steps in the audiovisual world, supporting them and encouraging them to give expression to their vision and promote their work in order to present and disseminate emerging Andalusian talent. We have a personalized advice unit for this and a series of measures and activities such as the creation of a Plan Novel catalogue, participation in international distribution circuits, scheduling of training days,...

Beneficiaries

New Andalusian audiovisual creators. We define new creators (age:16-35) as those creators who have not done paid professional work, directing or producing audiovisual productions that are distributed commercially.

The Catalogue

We publish an annual catalogue of selected work that we'll be responsible for promoting in festivals, circuits, meetings, etc.
