Online Poker

Online poker is the game of poker played over the Internet. It is responsible for a huge increase in the number of poker players worldwide and of much debate about the question if poker constitutes a game of skill or falls under the general umbrella of illegal online gambling.

Free poker online was first played in the form of an application layer protocol that facilitated communication in the form of a text. The first real money poker game on the Internet was dealt on January 1st, 1998. Author Mike Caro became the “face” of Planet Poker, the first online card room, in October 1999. Since then, online poker moved into the homes of more and more players, and poker-mania spread rapidly thanks to the televised World Series of poker in 2001. These events proved extremely popular and made the people behind them unbelievably rich.

Nowadays football superstar Cristiano Ronaldo has joined Poker Stars, the most popular poker company in the world. Together with Neymar Jr., already a keen poker player, he has become an ambassador of a game that requires competition and strategy and sells fun and success. Ronaldo’s popularity is used in advertising campaigns to give his legions of fans the chance to win a once-in-a-lifetime meeting with their hero, and even challenge him at the poker table, which makes online poker more attractive if possible.
