

Table of Content

CHAPTER 1. INTRODUCTION

Environmental connectivity and conservation in the Mediterranean basin. Some issues for discussion	3
H. Castro Nogueira

CHAPTER 2. CONNECTIVITY AND PROTECTED AREAS

Spatial meshes of the landscape. Concepts, applicability and urgent themes related to land planning.....	9
F. D. Pineda and M.F. Schmitz

Connectivity and networks of natural protected areas. From the theoretical model to the practical view of management.....	29
J.V. de Lucio Fernández et al.

The experience in networks. Ecological spatial cohesion – basis for nature conservation	55
B. Pedroli

Agriculture, landscapes and connectivity	71
J. Baudry

Sinergies at a national scale as a contribution to connectivity. Landscape, rural development and financial support.....	81
G. Álvarez

CHAPTER 3. MEDITERRANEAN EXPERIENCES IN CONNECTIVITY

Connectivity in regional systems of protected areas	87
S. García Fernández Velilla

Ecological landscape design, planning and connectivity in the Mediterranean and in Italy	109
G. Pungetti

Connectivity within the Andalusian Network of Natural Protected Areas.....	121
F. Molina Vázquez
Current situation and proposals for improving functionality in the Guadamar fluvial corridor	135
J.M. Arenas Cabello
Biodiversity and natural resource management in Turkey.....	153
S. Arancli

CHAPTER 4. THE MEDITERRANEAN REGION FACED WITH THE WORLD PARK CONGRESS 2003

From Málaga to Durban. Reflections about the contributions made by the Mediterranean to the fifth World Congress of Protected Areas	167
P. Rosabal
Environmental connectivity. Protected areas in the Mediterranean context.	177
Workshop conclusions. Málaga 26-28 September 2002
Annex	193
Participant list	