

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

Towards a New Ecoregional Vision for the management of protected areas in the Mediterranean region	8
• A Mediterranean vision of protected areas within the context of IUCN	8
• The Mediterranean ecoregion. One case of joint evolution involving natural and cultural forces.	12
• Linkages in the landscape. Conservation beyond the boundaries of protected areas	19
• A Mediterranean frame of reference	23
• A new concept of protected area aimed at conservation beyond boundaries	25
• Management mistakes and opportunities within the scope of the Mediterranean Basin's Protected Areas	26
• From a biocentric approach to an ecosystemic approach. From singular values to the ecological and cultural integrity	28
• From passive management to active management	32
• From administrative units to functional units. The role played by the territorial matrix	33
• From singular areas to networks and planning systems	35
• The role of the Mediterranean agricultural matrix	38
• The IUCN's Fifth Category as a tool for maintaining the ecological and cultural integrity of the territory	40

The Master Plan of the Andalusian Network of Natural Protected Areas. An opportunity for the establishment of conservation systems in the Mediterranean area	42
• RENPA's Master Plan. Towards an integrated planning of protected areas	43
• Aim and scope of the Master Plan	48
• Basic objectives	48
• Concept and functions of protected areas in Andalusia	52
• An ecoregional vision. Conserving beyond the boundaries of protected areas	53
• Leading principles for the management of RENPA	55
• The RENPA's Planning System (SPR)	58
• Protection levels of the Andalusian natural areas	61
• The role of protected areas in the SPR	61
• The Conservation System's constituent elements	64
• The architecture of the System. Integration of RENPA into the Andalusian territorial model	69
• A hierarchical planning	91
Towards the definition of an action plan aimed at the management of natural protected areas in the Mediterranean region	94
References	100